

ESCUELA DE IDIOMAS NERJA

Accredited Centre by Instituto Cervantes. This is the nationwide language school inspection scheme in Spain administered by Instituto Cervantes in conjunction with the Spanish Ministry of Education. Senior academic staff is assigned to carry out the inspections. Schools that pass the inspection are allowed to use the Instituto Cervantes logo.

The International Association of Language Centres is an award-winning association of independent language schools that teach the language of their country. Their quality is guaranteed through minimum standards, regular inspection, a code of ethics and a philosophy of continuous improvement.

Spanish Schools Org.

Andalusian Schools Org.

Colaboration agreement

Spanish for Business Examination Centre

Grants in Sweden

Oxfam International works directly with communities and seeks to influence the powerful to ensure that poor people can improve their lives and livelihoods and have a say in decisions that affect them.